

Mac's Monthly Advice

As I'm sure you all know, I'm a sucker for a good deal, mostly because it's important to keep a budget and wait for the good breaks. And boy have I found some deeply discounted doozies for the month of February! So, because you are all my special friends, I want to share these finds with you!

How's your sleep these days?

Did you know that, according to a recent Consumer Reports survey, nearly 80% of the adults in the survey reported trouble getting a good night sleep? Now, as a dog, this has never been a problem for me. I can sleep anywhere - but for humans, I understand it can be quite the issue! Enter, exciting discount number one: mattresses! This is the month when it's out with the old and in with the new for the stores, and could be for you too! So, if you've been considering investing in a new mattress, now is a good time to buy.

Here's another one.

Many of us feel cooped up during the winter months, which gives you a LOT of time to stare at the walls... or is that just me? Anywho, another hot deal this month is actually super convenient, and that's interior paint! What better time to freshen up the indoors, than when you can't be outdoors as often! Interior paint has come a long way these days, and many brands are proud to boast odorless, 'one coat' dream paints for your home. So, if being stuck indoors left you wanting more from your interior, maybe a fresh coat of paint will do the trick! Now, get out there, freshen up your pad, and get some good sleep.

Love, Mac!
