

Mac's Monthly Advice!

Happy Thanksgiving! Mac here with some delicious tidbits about our annual Thanksgiving feasting and festivities!

Gobble, Gobble, Gobble!

According to a survey by the National Turkey Federation (yes, that is a thing), almost 90% of Americans surveyed said they ate turkey on Thanksgiving. How many turkeys is that, actually? Around 46 MILLION turkeys!

Pass the Shellfish!

Strangely enough, turkey wasn't on the original Thanksgiving menu - lobster, clams, venison and ham were among the highlights of that first celebration.

Pardon moi?

On November 19, 1963, President John F Kennedy started the tradition of "pardoning" a turkey on Thanksgiving. This little bit of fun then became an annual tradition in 1989 with President George H W Bush.
